Venice, Novemb. 10.

ON Thurſday laſt arrived here General Degenfeldt, with the Commiſſary General of the Troops of Saxony, by whom we are informed, That Captain General Moroſini had cauſed the Fortreſs of Puſſava in the Province of Maina, to be demoliſhed, but had put good Gariſons into Coron, Zarnata, Chielifa, and Porto Vitulo; That he had ſent the Troops of Saxony and Brunſwick to winter at Corfu and Zant, and that he intended to go himſelf with the Gallies to Sta. Maura; That Signior Molino was cruiſing with the Squadron under his Command in the Sea of Sapienza, and Signior Delfino in the Archipelago; And that the Captain Baſſa was gone with his remaining Troops which were not above 3000 Horſe into Arcadia. By a Veſſel come from Durazzo we have advice that the Baſſa of Scutari having got a body of Men together marched with them towards Cattaro, with a deſign to attack that place, but that the Heydukes and Morlaques having notice of it, had aſſembled ſuch a Force as to oblige him to retire in much haſte.

Genoua, Novemb. 10. We have an account from Legborn that a Tartane was arrived there from the Coaſt of Barbary, with advice that the two Brothers Haly and Mehemet Sons of Morad Bey had defeated the Forces of the Dey of Tunis, who not thinking himſelf ſafe in that City, was fled into the Country.

Warſaw, Octob. 25. The Forces of this Crown having by their courage and reſolution freed themſelves from the danger that threatened them (being ſo encloſed by the Turks and Tartars who were treble their number, that they could hardly have ſubſiſted any longer) and opened, with the Slaughter of 8 or 900 of the Enemy, a way for their retreat towards the Nieſter, have ſince, as the laſt Letters from Lembourgh inform us, repaſſed that River, and are going into their Winter-quarters. The Militia of the ſeveral Palatinates are drawing together in purſuance of the Kings Orders, and ſome of them have already begun their march, but it's believed they will now be Countermanded; And that the King will return hither with the whole Court to paſs the Winter here. The Sieur Mobila General of the faithful Coſſacks, having received advice that Solincko, who Commanded the Coſſacks that have revolted to the Turks, was with 2000 Men at Soborlitz in the Ukrain, of which whole Province the Grand Signior had made him Governor, he ſent thither a detachement of 4000 Men, who marching with great diligence ſurprized the ſaid place; which they Plundered and afterwards burnt; Among the Priſoners they took was the ſaid Solincko, who offered 12000 Ducats for his Ranſome, which the Coſſacks would not accept of, but brought him to their General Mobila, who has ſent him to the King of Poland.

Oedembourgh, Novemb. 2. The Count de Peradeiſer Viceroy of Croatia, being taken very ill with the Gout, gave to his Nephew Count Francis Erdedi the Command of 2000 men, which he intended to have led himſelf, to make an incurſion into the Enemies Territories; Accordingly he began his march the 17th of the laſt month towards the Town of Uranograth, which he attackt the 19th, and after ſome reſiſtance made himſelf Maſter of it, but the Turks who retired into the Caſtle defended it ſo well that he did not think fit to ſtay any longer there, but continuing his march deſtroyed all the Country for ſeveral miles round, and having Plundered and burnt ſeveral Villages, returned the 25th with a great deal of booty and 50 Priſoners, having in this expedition loſt but five Men, beſides 10 or 12 wounded.

Vienna, Novemb. 11. The ninth inſtant Cardinal Bonviſi the Popes Nuncio at this Court received Letters by an Expreſs from Rome, and the next day had Audience of the Emperor, to acquaint his Imperial Majeſty that the Moſt Chriſtian King has referred to the Arbitrage of his Holineſs, the Pretentions of the Dutcheſs of Orleans upon the Allodial Lands of the Palatinate. The Marquis de Luzara is arrived here in the Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Mantua, to Compliment the Emperor upon the happy ſucceſſes of his Arms in Hungary, and the Birth of the young Arch-Duke. The Princeſs Rogotzi has it's ſaid ſurrendred the Caſtle of Mongatz to General Caprara; The Imperial Troops on that ſide are now preparing to enter into their Winter-quarters, though there is a diſcourſe that before they ſeperate they will make another attempt upon Agria, the Popes Nuntio having promiſed to give 50000 Crowns in caſe they take that place this Winter. The Turkiſh Aga who we told you in our laſt, was arrived at Comorra, is ſtill there, not being able to obtain a Paſſport to come hither; but it's believed that ſome perſon will be ſent to him to know his buſineſs.

Cologne, Novemb. 20. The Imperial Commiſſioners have begun to examine the matters in diſpute between the old and preſent Magiſtrates, and have ſummoned the Sindicke Fudendonck and ſome others, who are able to give an account of the publick proceedings here ſince the year 1680. to appear before them. The Sieur Bilſtein is gone to Vienna on the part of this City; And it's believed he has likewiſe a Commiſſion to ſome Princes of the Empire. We are told from Franckfort, that orders have been ſent to the Troops of Franconia now in the Emperors ſervice, to Winter in the Hereditary Countries; And that the States of that Circle intend to recruit the ſaid Troops againſt the next
